

GUIDE - ENTERING LEGAL INTERPRETING ORDERS

1. Open the Order Intake Form with "Schedule Interpreter"

Under the Schedule tab, you will see Scheduling Tab Menu. Select "Schedule Interpreter" to get started on an order.

2. Client Details

Move on to the Request Details tab. Fill out the client information.

• REQUESTER

- Who is the Requester? The Requester is the main account that placed the order. This could be any of the following: court reporting company, law firm, school district, etc.

In the text box you can key in the name (you may key in a portion of the account name).

A form for adding a requester. It has two main fields: 'REQUESTER' and 'REQUESTER NAME'. The 'REQUESTER' field is a dropdown menu with the text 'Todd Olivas & Associates Court Reporters Murrieta :: 7488' and a question mark icon to its right. The 'REQUESTER NAME' field is a dropdown menu with the text 'Copp, Andrea' and a question mark icon to its right. Below these fields is a button labeled 'ADD REQUESTER' with a question mark icon to its right.

If the client does not auto-populate within this tab go to the LOOKUP tab to search by additional criteria. Follow the instructions below to add a new requester for an account.

Three buttons arranged horizontally. The first button is blue and labeled 'SET AS REQUESTING ACCOUNT'. The second button is grey and labeled 'SET AS SERVICE ACCOUNT'. The third button is grey and labeled 'SET AS BILL TO ACCOUNT'.

- Need to add a new Requester? If the contact who placed the request is not listed Accounts click the "ADD REQUESTER" button. Key in the following details then click "ADD AND SELECT."

• SERVICE ACCOUNT

- What is the Service Account? The Service Account is the one that will receive the service; the end client, usually the law firm. If the law firm sent a request, the service account is the law firm. Under Service Account, you will indicate the name of the handling attorney.

In the text box, type the name of the law firm and/or the handling attorney's name.

* Important * It is necessary to select a parent account (blue dot) at this point.

Service Accounts always have a blue dot and must be selected here for the order to be entered properly.

• BILLING ACCOUNT

- What is the Billing Account? This is the account that will receive the invoice for our services.
- Select the "BILLING ACCOUNT" box whether billing a insurance company or the law firm directly. Once that box is selected the a drop down menu for the Bill To Account will appear.
- When we need to bill a third party, such as an insurance company, the billing account is the insurance company. If we are not billing a third party (i.e. insurance company), you will use the law firm's subaccount (i.e. Law Firm - Southern CA Rates).
- You must choose an account with Rates for their rates to be entered for invoicing.

In the text box you can key in the Insurance Company name. Can't find an adjusters or billing contact name? Use the LOOKUP tab to search for an adjuster.

* Important * It is necessary to select the correct subaccount under the parent account. Below you will see the parent account (blue dot) and the subaccount that shows the rates that are to be billed (grey dot).

Billing Accounts always have a grey dot and must be selected for the correct rates to pull up at the time of invoices.
